

Anavio Capital Partners LLP: Modern Slavery Statement

Anavio Capital Partners LLP (“Anavio”) is a UK-based limited liability partnership whose sole business activity is investment management. Anavio fully supports the Modern Slavery Act which aims to eradicate all forms of modern slavery from business practices. Modern slavery includes slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour, and human trafficking.

The Modern Slavery Act 2015 came into force on 29 October 2015 and requires businesses in scope to produce an annual statement setting out the steps they have taken to ensure that there is no modern slavery in their own business or in any of their supply chains.

Anavio has given careful consideration to Section 54 (Transparency in Supply Chains) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. Anavio has assessed its direct exposure towards forms of slavery, human trafficking or child labour and its employment practices which it believes eliminates any risk of such slavery occurring. Anavio operates in the financial services industry which, by its nature, limits direct exposure towards forms of slavery, human trafficking or child labour. Anavio sources its services almost entirely from the UK and other low-risk countries such as Ireland and the United States of America where modern slavery is not prevalent. Anavio’s review has concluded that the services it provides are very unlikely to be affected by slavery, as are the supply chains of those it uses for the purchase of services. Accordingly, it has been deemed unnecessary for Anavio to take any further action in respect of this legislation at this time.

Anavio will continue to look at how it can further mitigate the risk of modern slavery in its supply chain and is ready to take appropriate action promptly to address any concerns that may arise. To this end, Anavio will monitor the effectiveness of its policies and practices and take any steps as may be appropriate to maintain an effective zero tolerance anti-modern slavery position. This includes ensuring that all of its suppliers, existing and new, that pose a material or higher risk have provided statements of compliance; that contractual terms with any such new suppliers satisfy modern slavery requirements; and that all relevant staff receive training appropriate to their requirements.

This statement is made pursuant to Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act and has been published on Anavio’s website and on the UK Government’s online registry.
